He is not dead, this friend: not dead,
But, in the path we mortals tread,
Got some few, trifling steps ahead,
And nearer to the end,
So that you, too, once past the bend,
Shall meet again, as face to face, this friend
You fancy dead.

Class History

On August 21, 1951, 41 green freshmen started their first of four years at Elmwood Community High School. Our first class meeting was held in October, our class advisor being Miss Phyllis Terry. We elected the following officers: Gene Endres, President; Deanne Patterson, Vice-President; and Janice Rodgers, Secretary-Treasurer.

In the fall of 1952, we were back as sophomores. Our class now numbered thirty-nine. The officers for this year were: Gene Endres, President; Larry Doubet, Vice-President; and Florence Wolschlag, Secretary-Treasurer.

As we entered our junior year we also entered our new high school building. Our class now totaled thirty-five. Class officers elected were: Nancy Hahn, President; Bill Colgan, Vice-President; Larry Doubet, Secretary-Treasurer; and Dick Neal, Reporter. A new project of our class was the organization of a school paper, "The Echo," which we published once every six weeks, with the help of Mrs. Morse, advisor. Our Junior Class play, "The Ruggles," was held November 20, which was a big success. In December, our class rings arrived. During March we started making plans for our Junior-Senior Prom, which was April 30. We chose as our theme "Hawaiian Paradise." We are now looking forward to next year when we will be seniors.

Officers for our Senior year were: Deanne Patterson, President; Jim Lane, Vice-President; and Larry Coon, Secretary-Treasurer. Reporter was Sharon Hoffmann. Activities for this year included: "Steak Fry"-October 5, 1954, freshman initiation, October, Christmas dance, December 23. In January, a bobsled party at Sandra Coon's.

When we were writing our essays for the Lorado Taft Essay contest we visited the Galesburg Library on March 10. Mrs. Bickford and Mrs. Hart chaperoned.

The Senior Class play was held March 25. The name of our play was "Buy Jupiter." It was a big success, even if a few things went wrong.

The Alumni Banquet was held on April 9. The old graduates and the new ones got together and had a fine time.

The big event for most of the senior girls who belong to FHA was the trip to St. Louis for the weekend, April 22-23. At the Sheraton hotel, we had a wonderful time.

The Junior-Senior Prom was beautiful, it too was a big success. The name of it was "Moonlight Gardens."

We are now looking forward to Baccalaureate on May 22, and then to our Graduation on May 27.

Class Will

We, the members of the senior class of one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five, being of sound mind and firm body, having complete control of our faculties but realizing that the end is drawing near, declare all former wills void, and do affirm this to be our last will and testament.

Section I

To The Faculty

We the Senior class do will and bequeath to Miss Risen a more understanding Senior class.

We the Senior class do will and bequeath to Mr. Hammond a permanent baby sitter.

We the Senior class do will and bequeath to Mrs. McCraith six secretaries.

We the Senior class do will and bequeath to Mr. Cady five healthy armadillos.

We the Senior class do will and bequeath to Mr. Bickford a dozen more pink padded shirts.

We the Senior class do will and bequeath to Mr. Schaff a more talkative Sociology class since we've been so quiet all year.

We the Senior class do will and bequeath to Mrs. Hart a fifty year supply of wood for her fire place.

We the Senior class do will and bequeath to Mrs. Monroe a more behaved group of seniors for her study hall.

Section II

- I, Judy Bain, do will and bequeath my long fingernails to Jean Davis.
I, Kendra Book, do will and bequeath my quiet ways to Mary Colgan.
I, Carol Broadfield, do will and bequeath my dangling earrings to Sandra Pillman.
I, Sandra Clark, do will and bequeath my scholastic rating to Bob Hayes.
I, Evelina Chochran, do will and bequeath a five gallon can of gas to Judy Purcell in case Dale's car stalls.
I, William Colgan, do will and bequeath my variety of girl friends to Edward Cosby.
I, Larry Coon, do will and bequeath my guitar to Maurice Stambaugh.
I, Sandra Coon, do will and bequeath my dancing abilities to Ethel Beard.
I, Darlene Crowe, do will and bequeath my daily letters to Betty Largent.
I, Bonnie Dawson, do will and bequeath my walk to Carol Smith.
I, Larry Doubet, leave my gift of gab to Jim Groeper.
I, Rodger Dunham, do will and bequeath my ability to argue to Pat McIntyre.
I, Gene Endres, do will and bequeath my track ability to Jerry Blankenship.
I, Jack Enfield, do will and bequeath my long legs to Gene Gilman.
I, James Forney, do will and bequeath my position as center on the Ag basketball team to Frank Harkness.
I, Leona Geeseman, leave my extra height to Janice Mercer.
I, Nancy Hahn, would leave my "yes, buts" to the teachers but after listening to them for the past four years I've been asked to take them with me.
I, Robert Harkness, do will and bequeath my coon dogs to Fred Miller.
I, Nancy Hayes, do will and bequeath David to anyone who thinks that she can get along with him without fighting.
I, Charles Hitchcock, do will and bequeath my ability to argue with Miss Risen to Noel Meyers.
I, Sharon Hoffmann, do will and bequeath my ability to get a man and keep him to Marilyn Cochran.
I, Jim Lane, do will and bequeath my job at the theater to anyone who needs the money.
I, Patsy Morby, do will and bequeath my jovial ways to Mary Ellen George.
I, Dick Neal, do will and bequeath my way with the girls to Frankie Keefer.
I, David Page, do will and bequeath my toni to Donna Swindler.
I, Judy Parker, leave my athletic talent to Eileen Wagner.
I, Deanne Patterson, do will and bequeath my driveway parking spot to my brother Sonny.
I, Janice Rodgers, do will and bequeath my giggle to Rowena Geeseman.
I, David Shindley, do will and bequeath my typing ability to Sally George.
I, Mary Stambaugh, do will and bequeath my mean brothers to anyone who wants them.

We, the senior class of nineteen hundred and fifty-five do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

Any signs of sanity are purely coincidental.

Prophecy

Good evening ladies and gentlemen! This is station ECHS-TV operating on 1955 kilocycles from the Palace Theatre in Elmwood, Illinois. This program is brought to you through the courtesy of Endre's Trucking Company, headquarters located on the 6th floor of the grain elevator in Edwards. For speed call Gene. Now back to our telecast.

Tonight we bring you the world premier of the new western hit, "The Cowboy and His Guitar," starring Larry Coon, better known to you in this area as "Zip." The premier has been scheduled for Elmwood High School. Our TV cameras are placed on either side of the grand marque. The streets of this small town are simply mobbed with cars and people from near and far. The townspeople have certainly fixed this little town up so that it would look like a miniature Broadway.

As time grows near for the star of the evening to appear, Zip's old class-mates begin to arrive. Perhaps you would like to meet some of his former friends.

First, I think we should introduce our Master of Ceremonies who is Mr. Richard Neal. Dick is now president of the D and N Chain Super Markets. Dick and his wife and two children were in town this weekend and Dick said he would be glad to be the MC on our TV broadcast tonight. Take it away, Dick!

Good evening ladies and gentlemen! Here comes Mr. and Mrs. Larry Doubet. Mrs. Doubet is the former Evalina Cochran. They are celebrating their ninth anniversary today. Mr. and Mrs. Doubet are living on a farm near Hanna City.

Now, driving up in this new 1965 black Buick convertible, is David Shindly, who is now head coach at Bradley University. The Braves have just finished an undefeated season as you can readily tell by the smile on David's face.

Now we will transfer to Camera B at the West entrance of the theater where Mrs. James Nixon, the former Sandra Coon, will continue. Sandra and Jim now live in a new home on Lake Braken. Sandra gets full benefit out of the basement where she teaches dancing lessons. One of her pupils is the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stalter. Mrs. Stalter is the former Deanne Patterson, who was the president of the class their senior year. Take it away, Sandy!

Thanks Dick! Good evening everyone! The people are beginning to file in this entrance. I see some familiar faces, and some that are not so familiar.

Entering now is James Forney, who is head of the State Soil Conservation. Jim stopped here enroute to New York City for a Conservation Convention.

Behind him is Miss Judy Bain, who is part of the great team of Keyser and Bain, psychologists at Mayo Clinic. Judy brings Joy's regards as one of them had to keep the hospital running.

Now entering is Mr. Enfield. Jack, according to last week's LOOK is in the midst of developing a new jet propelled car to be called the Hiney-Mobile. Good luck, Jack!

Now I'll turn the microphone back to the MC at the front entrance.

Thank you Sandra and now for a few words from our sponsor to whom we are grateful for making this telecast possible.

Is your car run-down? Is there a familiar knock in your motor? You need a new car? Trade in that old Ford Fairline and get a new Ford Hitchcock! Everything is automatic! Since Mr. Hitchcock married into the Ford family five years ago, cars have been bigger, better, and faster than thought believable. For that new Ford go to Hitchcock's Downtown Ford Company across from the fire house.

Now back to Dick at the front entrance!

Thank you, Jim! As some of you probably know, Mr. Lane is the head mechanical engineer of U.S. Steel. Jim and his family are here contemplating the building and construction of a toll bridge over Kickapoo Creek.

Entering now is Miss Darlene Crowe who is head cook of the Pere Marquette Hotele in Peoria. She has been head cook for over seven years, getting her start in the cafeteria at Caterpillar.

Behind Darlene is Nancy Hayes who just landed at the Elmwood Airport. Nancy was stewardess on the plane which brought Mr. Coon and the cast of the movie here for the premier. Now we'll go to the east entrance where Sandra Clark is at Camera C. Sandy is here on leave of absence from her duties in the radar towers at LaGuardia Airport of New York City. OK, Sandy--it's all yours!

Thank you, Dick. Before we meet some of the people coming into the entrance here I'd like to tell you that I received a telegram from Janice Rodgers who sends her regards. It was impossible for her to be here as she is somewhere over the Pacific Ocean enroute to China. She is the stewardess of American Airline plane--the Flybird.

Entering now is Miss Nancy Hahn who has just returned from a four year stay in the jungles of South Africa. Nancy has been acting as teacher and missionary to the natives of this region. She leaves for Alaska after a rest here at home with her family and friends. She intends to teach the Eskimos the art of homemaking and nursing as she did the tribes of South Africa. Notice the fur cape that Nancy is wearing. It is probably from one of the animals she killed in self defense. Also notice the alligator shoes and handbag. Driving up now are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harkness and their family from Wyoming. Bob and his wife left Illinois shortly after graduation ten years ago and now own a very prosperous farm near Laramie. It was on Bob's land that the movie which you are about to see was filmed.

Running up to the door now, evidently afraid she'll be late, is another former classmate, Miss Leona Geeseman. Leona now teaches the first grade at the Elmwood Grade School. Leona may be right--time is drawing nearer for the premier and so I shall send you back to the front entrance and to Dick!

Thank you for your interviewing. As Sandy said time is growing near for the premier of the season to begin. Before we carry on though, I'd like to read you a telegram from another former classmate who found it impossible to be here with us. "Good luck, Larry! Remember the times we had at good old ECHS. David Page." Dave sent this from Cairo, Egypt, where he is located with the Standard Oil Co. I have been getting a signal from Camera B at the east entrance. Have you some more interesting people for us to meet, Sandy?

Yes, I do Dick. People are filing in here very fast now since time for the curtain is so near. Right here at my elbow is the Former Kendra Book, now the Mrs. Lee Snider, Kenny and her husband flew in from San Diego on the plane with the cast of the movie. Kennie at the present is engaged in being a sailor's wife. Now back to Dick!

Thank you Sandy. There seems to be a great deal of commotion over around Sandra Clark's mike. Sandy, has Larry showed up?

Not yet, Dick, but we do have quite a little bit of excitement. The great pitcher of the Dieselletts is now attempting to make her way up to the door. She is being besieged by some of her fans. Incidentally, we are very proud of this lady; she graduated with us 10 years ago, name of Judy Parker. Ok, Dick, Judy made it inside the theater, we can go inside now.

Thank you again. The five minute curtain call has just now been sounded so we'll now go into the theater. We're now going down the center aisle--over to the right is seated Mr. Roger Dunham, author of the book from which this movie has been made. Sitting in row seven on the left aisle is Miss Sharon Hoffmann, another classmate of the star of the evening, who designed the costumes and the settings for this movie. We'd like to stop and chat to her but time is growing short. The beautiful bouquets of flowers around the theater and on the stage were donated by Morby's Flower Shop in Hanna City. Patsy has been running this shop for 5 years and is known over the state for her Morby Magnolias.

The house lights have dimmed three times--there are now three minutes until curtain time. I see celebrities seated around in the crowd, to the right is Betty Gabor, to her left is Gary Peck, behind Mr. Peck is the prominent farmer William Colgan, who put the capital backing into this movie. Seated beside Bill is Miss Bonnie Dawson, who now runs the CILCO in Peoria. Ten years ago Bonnie started at the CILCO as a bookkeeper, which shows you that it is possible to climb to the top of the ladder.

We're sorry you can't join us for the rest of the evening, but do tear yourselves away from your TV sets tomorrow night and come see the movie.

The lights are going down, the curtain is rising, and the premier has begun.

On a fair day in September of 1952, fifty-four green freshmen meekly stared at the classrooms they would occupy for the next four years. At the first class meeting Mack Street was elected President; Ada Jones, Vice-President; and Bernard Snider, Secretary-Treasurer.

The class began its sophomore year on August 31, 1953, with fifty-three students. The officers were: George Whitney, President; Dick Eccles, Vice-President; Carla Haines, Secretary-Treasurer; and Diane Butterfield, Reporter. This year the biology class took an interesting trip to Chicago in May.

The junior year began on September 2, 1954 with forty-seven students. Elected this year were: Karl Taylor, President; Carla Haines, Vice-President; Diane Butterfield, Secretary-Treasurer; and Vonda Archibald, Reporter.

November 10 the sophomores had an all-school party, refreshments were served, a program was given and everyone had lots of fun.

The main way of making money was a coat-check business at the basketball games.

In January about thirty sophomores held a free-for-all party that ended with sled riding. Hot chocolate and cookies were served to all.

The sophomore biology class held a bakesale to raise money for an armadillo. The armadillo died and as a result the class has money to donate to the "56" junior class.

The biology class also took an all day trip to Chicago to the Field Museum and Brookfield Zoo on May 7, 1955. Mr. Cady sponsored the trip, and Bob Cox drove the bus. Everyone enjoyed themselves.

This year's record for the 1954-55 basketball season consisted of sixteen wins and nine losses, including tournament play. The team participated in three tournaments. One on their home floor, in which we placed third, one at Princeville, and the regionals at Canton.

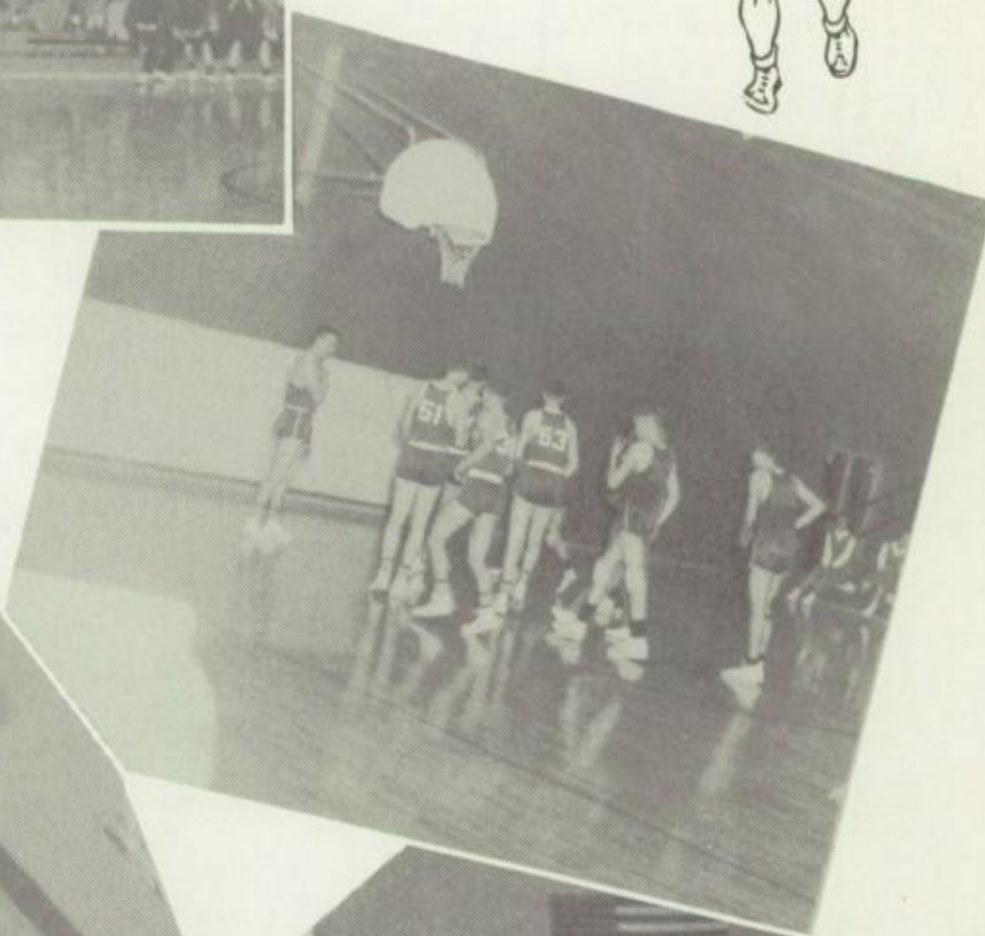

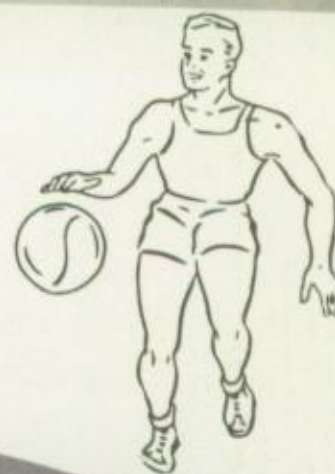

We are very proud of our team which copped the co-championship with Walnut. Next year, the team is looking forward to winning the Blackhawk Conference Championship, for there are six of the seven lettermen returning. The only graduating letterman is David Shindley, who is a three year letterman.

Play Days were attended in October and April, and the President, Secretary, and a representative attended a Workshop at Canton in the fall.

January 31 a party was held to honor Mrs. Silzer, who then left as our advisor, and Miss Fitzgerald, our new advisor.

The organization sponsored a movie in the spring to help pay for the many awards earned by the girls this year. The awards were presented and new officers elected May 17 at a picnic at West Park. We are looking forward to a very active year!

The Elmwood High School chorus kept quite busy this year attending the annual Blackhawk Festival at Princeville in March and singing for various organizations. Also the chorus enjoyed singing a few numbers at the Band Concert held May 15, 1955 in the high school gymnasium.

The chorus has had a very successful year under the capable direction of Miss Gladys Proctor.

Here's to a successful year in 1956!

INTERMISSION

Saturday, February 12, was the date of the FHA Formal Sweetheart Dance held in the Elmwood High School Gymnasium.

The gym was appropriately decorated in keeping with the Valentine tradition. Music was supplied by Marie Webber's orchestra.

At 11:00 p. m. the queen was crowned. Preceding her in the procession to the throne were her attendants Letitia Steer and Nancy Hayes. Doing the honor of crowning was Mr. Bickford who placed the crown of white mums on Queen Nancy Hahn's head. The queen and her escort then led the next dance.

Band

Officers for this year were Douglas Coulter, President; Evelina Cochran, Vice-President; Duane Runyon, Secretary-Treasurer; and Jackie Martin, Librarian.

The band has played for all the home basketball and football games and led the parade through town for the homecoming festivities.

Money raising funds for this year were as follows:

Sponsoring square and round dancing

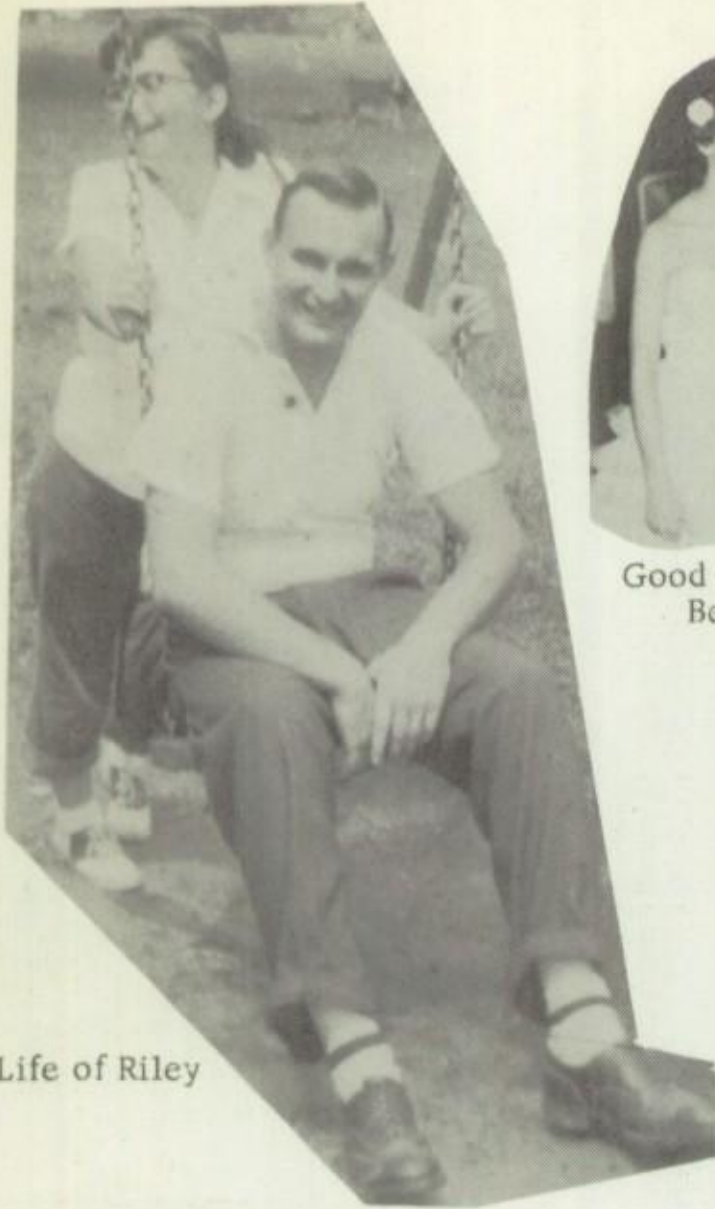

Selling fudge at basketball games

Selling food at football games

April 19 the band participated in a Band Festival held at Wethersfield.

The Band Association bought all the members orange shirts to wear with their black slacks during the basketball season.

Homecoming

Festivities for this year's Homecoming got under way Thursday, November 3, with a chilli supper served in the school cafeteria by the Senior Class.

Immediately following the supper, a stunt show was held in the gym, which was open to the public. Larry Coon acted as Master of Ceremonies and also played a few selections on his guitar. The program consisted of skits portrayed by each class as to their idea of how the game would turn out. There was also a surprise skit put on by some students who mimicked the teachers at a ball game.

Friday was the big day and found most all of the students putting the finishing touches on their floats. The parade began at 2:30 and started from the school. There was a good crowd gathered at spots along the way to see the high-stepping majorettes, the loud-playing band, the brightly decorated floats, and the shiny queen's convertible.

The floats then came back to the school and were lined up to be put on exhibition for the game.

The cheerleaders led a large group in a roaring pep rally which showed the boys we were behind them all the way.

The game seemed to be over before it had actually begun, and Elmwood found itself on the bottom end of the score. Bradford had decided that homecoming or not we were not going to win the game.

Even the loss of the game didn't damper the spirits of the crowd which attended the dance in the gym. The gym was decorated in appropriate orange and black and with footballs. Woodie and his orchestra furnished the dance music which everyone enjoyed.

STUNT NIGHT

ALL WE NEED'S A DUST PAN!

At 11 o'clock the royal procession began. Leading were the third attendants, Judy Bain and Jim Forney; then the second attendants, Nancy Hahn and Bill Colgan; followed by the first attendants, Sharon Hollmann and Richard Neal. The crown bearers and the flower girl, Cheryle, Joe, and Donnie MacCraith, immediately preceded Queen Deanne Patterson and King Gene Endres.

Coach Jay Schaff did the honors of crowning the royal couple.

At midnight the band played the strains of "Goodnight Sweetheart," and the 1954 Homecoming festivities were brought to a close.

Senior Play

BUY JUPITER

The Senior Class Play this year was presented on March 25, 1955, in the high school gym. The trials and tribulations of life in a New York Department Store were expertly enacted by members of the Senior Class under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Monroe. "Jupiter" turned out to be a huge success even though slightly deflated.

Prom

One of the most celebrated nights for ECHS was Friday, April 29, the night of the Junior-Senior Reception and Prom.

In preparation for this gala event members of the Junior Class, under the helpful guidance of their sponsors--Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Swanson--worked hard all week decorating to the theme of "Moonlight Gardens." Silver stars were suspended from the ceiling of dark blue. The white picket fence around the floor was accented by the beautiful flowers "growing" on it. The thrones for the royal couple were white wrought-iron chairs. Above the thrones was a big full moon radiantly shining upon the spot in "Moonlight Gardens" selected for the King and Queen. A white trellis with climbing red roses was at the entrance to the lounge. Lawn furniture, birds, and the grass and flowers in the lounge displayed the garden and crepe paper. A centerpiece with a fountain and many fresh flowers scattered about looked very pretty with the light overhead shining down on it.

While recorded music played in the background, a delicious meal consisting of fruit juice, swiss steak, mashed potatoes and gravy, corn, twenty-four hour salad, rolls and butter, ice cream and cake, and coffee served by the junior mother's.

After the banquet Karl Taylor, the junior president, welcomed the Seniors and faculty. Deanne Patterson, the senior president, gave the response. Bob Shissler introduced the program. A piano solo, "Moonlight Cocktail," was played by Jackie Kilpatrick. Pat Simpson sang "Moonlight and Roses," and "The Stars Will Remember." The speaker, Mrs. McCraith, chose "Thoughts on This and That," as her speech. Larry Cox presented the gifts to the Seniors.

Freddie Steven's orchestra played the dance music for the evening. Everyone seemed to greatly enjoy the music.

At 11:00 p. m., Karl Taylor and Carla Haines, President and Vice-President, respectively, led the grand march in which everyone joined. Proceeding to the throne were Carla and Karl; Diane Butterfield and Phil Kratzer; Sandra Coon and Dick Neal, senior attendants; and the king and queen, Sharon Hoffmann and Charles Hitchcock. Karl crowned the reigning couple and then the pair led the next dance.

The punch boy and punch girl were Tom Jones and Janice Mercer. Checkroom girls were Sharon Ekena and Judy Purcell.

At 12:00 p. m. the juniors, seniors, and faculty, and guests left the "Moonlight Gardens" forever. It ended soon, but it was enjoyed by all while it lasted.

The Pep Squad has attended both football and basketball games to back up the Elmwood teams.

The club is very proud of Vernon Broadfield, the first boy cheerleader, who has done a very good job leading cheers at basketball games with Pat Dunn and Mary Colgan.

Trophies were given for good sportsmanship to one boy in football and one boy in basketball. A record is kept of these boys from year to year on a plaque in the gym.

Membership for this year totals thirty-five.
